1 (Call to Order of the Court at 3:04 p.m.)

2 THE COURT: Hi. This is Joel Hoppe.

3 Who is on the line for the plaintiffs?

4 MS. KAPLAN: Hey, Judge. It is Roberta Kaplan from 5 Kaplan & Company. And I'm here with a bunch of other folks,
6 including Phil Bowman, Boise Schiller.

7 MR. LEVINE: And Alan Levine from Cooley, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: All right. Good afternoon.

9 MR. ROTTENBORN: John Rottenborn, Woods Rogers, Your 10 Honor.

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 All right. Who do we have on the line for the 13 defendants? And I don't know that we are going to have everybody,
14 but can you just go ahead and identify yourselves.

15 MR. SPENCER: This is Richard Spencer.

16 THE COURT: All right.

17 MR. KOLENICH: Jim Kolenich, Your Honor, for defendants
18 Parrott, Traditionalist Worker Party.

19 THE COURT: Anybody else?

20 (No response.)

21 THE COURT: All right. Well, Mr. Kolenich and 22 Mr. Spencer, good afternoon to you.

23 Ms. Kaplan, were you expecting anyone else on the phone
24 for the defendants?

25 MS. KAPLAN: Not necessarily, Your Honor. No.

1 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

2 Well, what issues do we need to take up today? I have
3 seen your emails that you have sent to the Court. And I think that 4 all of the defendants were cc'd on those. What do we have to 5 address?

6 MS. KAPLAN: Okay, Your Honor. We sent the email today
7 because I'm not sure we do have much to address. We still don't
8 have any written responses from defendant Mosely. But I'm not sure
9 whether he's currently represented by anyone on the phone, so I'm 10 not sure what we can do about that. And maybe we should just 11 proceed to file some kind of a sanctions motion with respect to 12 that.

13 With respect to the other issues, the defendants have all
14 now, subsequent to our email, complied. And the issues now are far 15 more substantive, which have to do with their lack of a response or 16 failure to have any documents or to have done anything to preserve
17 documents.

18 But on that score, as we said in our email, we think the 19 more efficient thing for us to do would be to supplement our 20 already pending order to show cause to kind of address these new 21 defendants and new issues.

22 THE COURT: Yeah. And probably the first thing to do on 23 that -- well, I understand the concerns that you stated that could 24 impact your issues raised in the motion to show cause, but it does
25 seem like -- as to the responses to your discovery, that, you know,

1 the first thing to do is to confer and do a deficiency letter and
2 so forth, but you know all of that.

3 MS. KAPLAN: Absolutely, Your Honor. We will do that.

4 THE COURT: All right.

5 Mr. Spencer -- so it doesn't sound like there's anything
6 that we really need to take up today at this point, from your
7 viewpoint, Ms. Kaplan; is that correct?

8 MS. KAPLAN: No, Your Honor. I mean, if there were any 9 attorney for Mr. Mosely on the phone, I would want Your Honor to 10 tell that person that he should comply. But I'm not sure if 11 Mr. Kolenich still represents Mr. Mosely, so that's my being 12 careful.

13 THE COURT: Yeah.

14 MR. KOLENICH: Your Honor, yes, I do represent -- his 15 real name is Mr. Kline, Elliott Kline. But he online goes by the 16 name Mosely. I do technically represent him. And I don't know if 17 the Court wants to get into that, since there's no motion pending
18 at this point, or not.

19 THE COURT: Well, I think I do, because I think it is 20 better to try and address this, you know, informally, if we can.

21 So, as I understand it, Mr. Kolenich, that your client
22 hasn't responded at all to the discovery?

23 MR. KOLENICH: Well, let me try to fully explain his 24 situation. Since very early on in this litigation I have had an 25 inability to communicate with Mr. Kline. And I have communicated

1 with him through members of the group Identity Evropa. And they
2 recently have had difficulty communicating with him as well. And 3 neither I, nor they, have been able to get him to participate in 4 this litigation.

5 I have requested permission to withdraw -- you know,
6 from -- their permission to file a motion to withdraw from 7 representing Mr. Kline. They have a contract with him which makes 8 that problematic. And they are taking it up with the attorney who 9 drafted that contract. So I may be moving to withdraw from the 10 representation, but I cannot today, because I haven't heard back
11 from them.

12 And we just have had no communication with him at all.
13 It is not as if we haven't tried. He's just not participating.

14 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Well, I understand -- I
15 understand your situation.

16 Ms. Kaplan, is there anything that you want to address
17 -- I'm not sure that there's much that we can address on this issue
18 today, given --

19 MS. KAPLAN: Well, I think that's right, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Yeah. All right.

21 Well, I'll leave it up to you-all to figure out how you
22 want to proceed concerning Mr. Kline and the discovery.

23 All right.

24 All right. And, Mr. Spencer, just for future
25 reference -- and just, you know, my expectations are well -- you

1 know, I'm sure Mr. Kolenich and Ms. Kaplan are aware of this. And
2 since -- I know that you are not an attorney by trade, but, you
3 know, if I set a deadline in an order and if for some reason, even 4 if it is, you know, an agreed reason, you are not going to be able 5 to make that deadline, the steps that you really need to take are,
6 one, to confer with opposing counsel and see what their position is 7 on it. And if they don't oppose an extension of the deadline, then 8 you-all would need to file a joint motion, getting that extension.
9 And if they oppose it, then, you know, it is really your obligation
10 to still file a motion and show good cause for the extension. But 11 you can't just not make a deadline.

12 MR. SPENCER: I would like to apologize to you and the 13 Court for missing the deadline. I am a layman. And I am trying my 14 best. And I am going to be a lot better. So I would just like to 15 apologize.

16 And I actually did contact the plaintiff's counsel and 17 they were not willing to grant a deadline. But I recognize the 18 obligations on me. And I -- I promise to do better in the future.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Well, thank you, Mr. Spencer. I just 20 wanted to mention it, just so that we're all on the same page about 21 that.

22 MR. SPENCER: Uh-huh.

23 THE COURT: All right.

24 MS. KAPLAN: Your Honor, to be clear, what happened is 25 the deadline expired. We contacted Mr. Spencer to ask him where

1 his submission was. And then he asked us for the extension. And 2 we said it was past the deadline. But, as Your Honor has already
3 said, I think that's now moot, so we can move on.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 All right. Well, is there anything else that we need to 6 address today, then?

7 MS. KAPLAN: I don't think so, Your Honor. I think we 8 intend to get some more papers, unfortunately, in front of you on 9 these document retention and inspection issues very promptly,
10 because we really want to move forward as quickly as possible with 11 depositions. There's a deposition in May, but we really need to 12 get this show on the road. So we're going to try to press ahead
13 with that.

14 THE COURT: All right.

15 All right. Mr. Spencer or Mr. Kolenich, anything else
16 that you would have to say?

17 MR. KOLENICH: Nothing from me, Your Honor. This is 18 Mr. Kolenich.

19 MR. SPENCER: No, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: All right. Well, then, thank you-all and 21 have a good day.

22 MS. KAPLAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

23 MR. SPENCER: Thank you.

24 MR. KOLENICH: Thank you.
